Anyone under the age of 18 must wear a certified helmet at all times while riding in the ring or warm up ring. This will be strongly enforced and the wearing of helmets outside the ring is the responsibility of parents / trainers, NOT the Color Classic Horse Show.
11. The Open /AQHA combined classes are Open to any Breed. The only difference is the AQHA Registered Horses that enter this class will be riding for AQHA points. This is how the classes are going to run. This is a statement of the AQHA Site "AQHA is introducing AQHA-approved classes to run during any open or 4-H horse show, in fact, these AQHA classes themselves can be held within other classes at the show. For example, AQHA members exhibiting in the open show's western pleasure class can also receive points based off their placing's against other AQHA members in that class. The shows are novice driven, but show management can choose to offer open, amateur and youth classes as well. Though classes will incorporate some relaxed rules to accommodate their new format, they will continue to uphold the core AQHA show standards and rules. Exhibitors will be able to earn AQHA points as is the case for all other AQHA shows and all classes will be judged by AQHA Judges."
12. The Open/AQHA combined classes will be judged by one Judge. Ribbons will be given out to the Open/AQHA Classes to fifth place along with payouts for open. The Judge's placing will be announced as well for AQHA and ribbons will be awarded. The Open classes that are not combined will be judged by alternating Judges.

13. Green classes are for horses or riders that are eligible. These classes will be Walk / Trot only and anyone showing in this division cannot cross enter except Showmanship and Halter. The gaits for this class are walk and trot only and riding with two hands on the reins will not be cause for disqualification. No stallions will be allowed.
